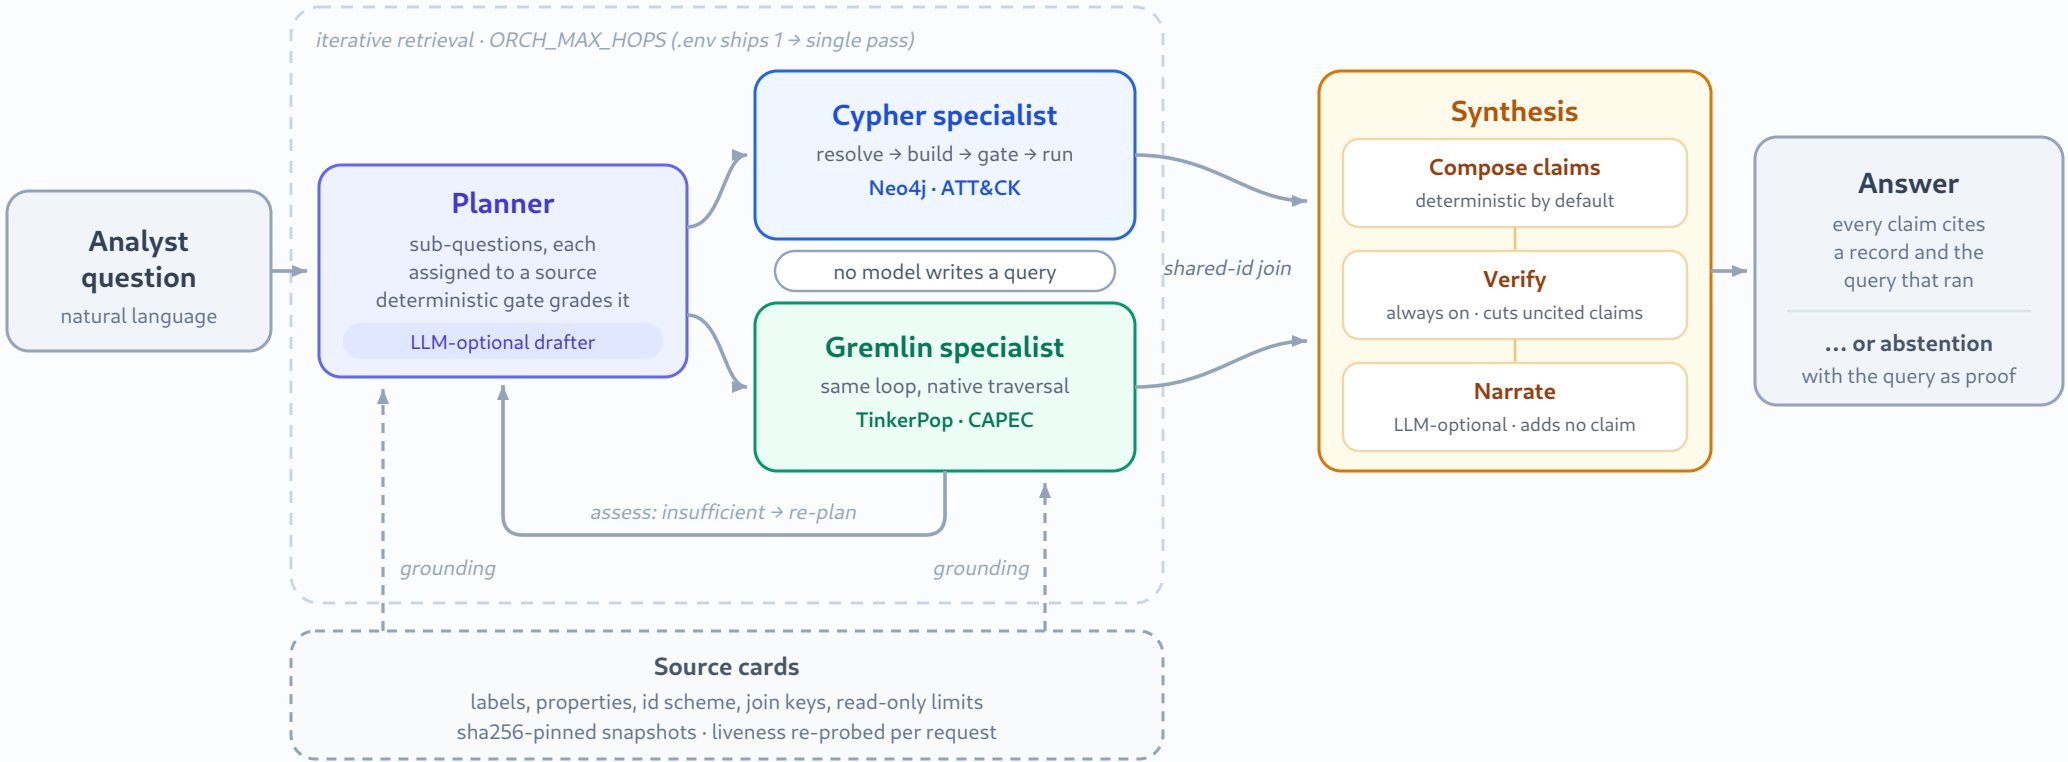
Ariadne

Live, read-only federated querying across cybersecurity knowledge graphs that don't share a query language.



Grounding comes from schema, source metadata, and executed queries — no vector index or embedding store is built from the graph data.